

ROTARY CLUB OF COROWA

PRESIDENT: PAUL MOWLAM

WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 7/11/2011
VOLUME 73 ISSUE 18

LAST MEETING – Catered for by the Guides in their cabin, the meeting was well attended and was a handy earner for the Jamboree being held in Canberra next year. The Jamboree gives Guides the opportunity to meet with, and to form friendships with Guides from all over N.S.W. and A.C.T.

INTERNATIONAL TOAST – John proposed a toast to the Interact Club of Blumenau in southern Brazil. Former exchange student Mathias, has recently joined this club.

FINE SESSION – An unusually lack lustre affair, no doubt reflecting the unfortunately enforced dry nature of the gathering.

Couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a check up, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember ..

Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks. 'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?' 'Sure..' 'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks. 'No, I can remember it.' 'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?' He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries.' 'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks. Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!' Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, The old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs.. She stares at the plate for a moment, then asks, 'Where's my toast?'

The traffic light on the corner buzzes when it's on red and safe to cross the road. I was crossing with an intellectually challenged friend of mine. She asked if I knew what the buzzer was for. I explained that it signals blind people when the light is red. Appalled, she responded, 'What on earth are blind people doing driving?!'

A diplomat is someone who can tell you to go to hell in such a way that you will look forward to the trip.

I married my wife for her looks... but not the ones she's been giving me lately!

Before you criticize someone, you should walk a mile in their shoes. That way, when you criticize them, you're a mile away and you have their shoes.
