

ROTARY CLUB OF COROWA

PRESIDENT: PAUL MOWLAM

WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 27/02/2012
VOLUME 73 ISSUE 31

Last meeting took the form of a BBQ in the Rotunda at Rowers Park where steaks, sausages and salads were eagerly consumed along with a drop amber and red lubricants.

Announcements

- Scatter week coming up.
- Road clean-up on Sunday 26th Feb.
- Built by Rotary sign to be erected inside rotunda.

Attendance

96% with John Law being the birthday boy.

Coming up

- Relay for life 3/3/12. We are needed but details will be advised later.
- KVE BBQ 17/3/12. We will need about 11/12 bods to help.
- Conference 23-25/3/12
- Information night on Carer Accommodation. See attachment

WHO IS THE ROTARIAN in the photo on right taken a few years ago? If anyone has photos from the past – even baby photos – how about sending them in for a weekly guessing segment in the Bulletin. No big prizes to be won, maybe a few laughs!

Birthday boy and head cook, John.

A wannabe cook without tool.

Hear no evil...see no evil....but it's OK to drink it.

Ideal setting at Rowers Park.

Road clean-up – thanks to the 8 bods on Sunday 26th – 33 bags of litter were picked-up.

Please read the attached information on the Albury/Wodonga carer accommodation. This is an initiative of the R.C. of North Albury, Lions District 201V6 and Zonta Club of Albury Wodonga. An information night is to be held on 28th? March. (Zonta is a world wide organisation of executives in business and the professions working together to advance the status of women through service and advocacy.)

My Living Will – Last night my kids and I were sitting in the living room and I said to them, “I never want to live in a vegetative state, dependent on a machine and fluids from a bottle. If that happens just pull the plug.” They got up, unplugged the TV and threw my wine away. The little bs.

Hospitality: making your guests feel like they're at home, even if you wish they were.

Success is a relative term - it brings so many relatives!

There are two theories about arguing with women and neither of them works.

Love is one long sweet dream, and marriage is the alarm clock.

If it weren't for marriage, men would spend their lives thinking they had no faults at all.

MEETINGS: A practical alternative to work.

If quitters never win, and winners never cheat, then who is the fool who said "Quit while you're ahead"?

Sure, I'd love to help you out.....now, which way did you come in?

Anybody who told you to be yourself simply couldn't have given you worse advice...

Man: "I feel like I've seen you somewhere before."

Woman: "Yeah, this is why I don't visit the place anymore."

Man: "Do you think I can give you a buzz?"

Woman: "My number's in the phone book."

Man: "How will I find it? I don't even know your name."

Woman: "You can find it in the book as well."

I have the simplest tastes. I am always satisfied with the best.

Never interrupt your opponent while he's making a mistake.

You never learn anything by doing it right.

We are born naked, wet, and hungry. Then things get worse.

Sometimes I think the surest sign that intelligent life exists elsewhere in the universe is that none of it has tried to contact us.
