

ROTARY CLUB OF COROWA

PRESIDENT: PAUL MOWLAM

WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 07/05/2012
VOLUME 73 ISSUE 40

Axel was our guest speaker and gave his account of Rockadu (rock to Kakadu) – formerly known as Rock to Reef. Sixteen days on a bus from Melbourne to Darwin with mainly girls. Imagine the chatter! Some of the highlights of the trip –

- 5 a.m. starts (Axel didn't know that 5 a.m. existed)
- No idea about how to pitch a tent.
- Walked 9 km around Uluru
- Played a didgeridoo
- Flew over Kings Canyon.
- Swam in the hot spring at Mataranka.
- Saw a crocodile but wouldn't get close
- Can now pitch a tent with ease.
- Had a really good time and made new friends.

International Toast

Stephen proposed a toast to the Rotary Club of Glasgow, Scotland. The inaugural meeting of the Rotary Club of Glasgow was held on 12th March, 1912 with an attendance of forty-one founder members. The Club meets on Tuesdays at 1 p.m.

Meeting Peggy Sue's Dad

It's the Spring of 1957 and Bobby goes to pick up his date, Peggy Sue. Bobby's a pretty hip guy with his own car and a ducktail hairdo. When he goes to the front door, Peggy Sue's father answers and invites him in.

"Peggy Sue's not ready yet, so why don't you have a seat?" he says. "That's cool." says Bobby.

Peggy Sue's father asks Bobby what they are planning to do. Bobby replies politely that they will probably just go to the malt shop or to a drive-in movie.

Peggy Sue's father responds "Why don't you kids go out and screw? I hear all of the kids are doing it." Naturally this comes as quite a surprise to Bobby and he says "Whaaaat?" "Yeah," says Peggy Sue's father, "Peggy Sue really likes to screw; she'll Screw all night if we let her!"

Bobby's eyes light up and smiles from ear to ear. Immediately, he has revised the plans for the evening. A few minutes later, Peggy Sue comes downstairs in her little poodle skirt with her saddle shoes and announces that she's ready to go. Almost breathless with anticipation, Bobby escorts his date out the front door while dad is saying "Have a good evening kids," with a wink for Bobby. About 20 minutes later, a thoroughly dishevelled Peggy Sue rushes back into the house, slams the door behind her and screams at her father: "DAMMIT DADDY! THE TWIST!!!! IT'S CALLED THE TWIST!!!!!"

It annoys me when people are willing to get off their ass to search the entire room for the TV remote because they refuse to walk to the TV and change the channel manually.

A vampire bat came flapping in from the night, covered in fresh blood and parked himself on the roof of the cave to get some sleep.

Pretty soon all the other bats smelt the blood and began hassling him about where he got it. He told them to go away and let him get some sleep. However, the bats persisted until finally he gave in.

"OK, follow me," he said and flew out of the cave with hundreds of bats behind him. Down through a valley they went, across a river and into a forest full of trees. Finally he slowed down and all the other bats excitedly milled around him.

"Now, do you see that tree over there?" he asked.

"Yes, yes, yes!" the bats all screamed in a hungry frenzy.

"Good," said the first bat tiredly, "Because I didn't!"

A passenger plane on a cross-country trip runs into a terrible storm. The plane gets pounded by rain, hail, wind and lightning. The passengers are screaming. They are sure the plane is going to crash and they are all going to die.

At the height of the storm, a young woman jumps up and exclaims, "I can't take this anymore! I can't just sit here and die like an animal, strapped into this seat. If I am going to die, let me die feeling like a woman. Is there anyone here man enough to make me feel like a woman?"

She sees a hand raise in the back, and a handsome, tall, muscular man smiles and starts to walk up to her seat. As he approaches her, he takes off his shirt. She sees his huge muscles, even in the poor lighting of the airliner cabin. He stands in front of her, shirt in hand and says to her, "Here. Iron this."
