WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 18/06/2012
VOLUME 73 ISSUE 46

LAST MEETING – Guest speaker Margaret Wilmot, a fibre artist from childhood, spoke on Gallery 294. For many years local artists were supported by the Arts & Crafts Group which ran Easter exhibitions to promote the work of local artists, potters, spinners & weavers. A co-operative was set up in 2007 and Gallery 294 was opened in Honour Av. in 2008. Open 7 days with free entry, the gallery displays local works to best advantage in pleasant surroundings. The gallery features a gift room where reasonably priced local works may be purchased as gifts for home or overseas. In the future it is hoped that more space will be available for studios and to hold extra workshops.

International Toast – Neil proposed a toast to the rotary clubs of Russia.

Figuratively speaking we knocked at the door of the Kremlin in the fall of 1989 when R.I President Hugh Archer with the help of past R.I. President Rolf Klarich visited Moscow for the first time. Before that there had been many attempts to start Rotary clubs in various parts of USSR. Many Finnish and Swedish PDGs and other Rotarians had since 1983 tried to introduce Rotary into Russia, but of course the RI Board wanted to keep matters in their own hands. Various conditions were laid down by both sides and the first Rotary club in USSR was chartered on the 5th of June 1990 in Moscow.

Rotary information – Trish spoke on June being Fellowship Month. Incoming president Stephen has many ideas regarding fellowship for the coming year and she urges us all to get behind Steve to increase fellowship in our club.

Would you buy a snag from these people?

This guy is walking with his friend, who happens to be a psychologist. He says to this friend, "I'm a walking economy."

The friend asks, "How so?"

"My hair line is in recession, my stomach is a victim of inflation, and both of these together are putting me into a deep depression!"

A motorist, driving by a Texas ranch, hit and killed a calf that was crossing the road. The driver went to the owner of the calf and explained what had happened. He then asked what the animal was worth.

"Oh, about $200 today," said the rancher. "But in six years it would have been worth $900. So $900 is what I'm out." The motorist sat down and wrote out a check and handed it to the farmer.

"Here," he said, "is the check for $900. It's post-dated six years from now."

This is the story of four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. Consequently, it wound up that Nobody told Anybody, so Everybody blamed Somebody.

Three women are about to be executed. One's a brunette, one's a redhead, and one's a blonde. The guard brings the brunette forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no, and the executioner shouts, "Ready! Aim..."

Suddenly the brunette yells, "EARTHQUAKE!!!"

Everyone is startled and throws themselves on the ground while she escapes.

The guard brings the redhead forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no, and the executioner shouts, "Ready! Aim..."

Suddenly the redhead yells, "TORNADO!!!"

Everyone is startled and looks around for cover while she escapes.

By now the blonde has it all figured out. The guard brings her forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no, and the executioner shouts, "Ready! Aim..."

And the blonde yells, "FIRE!!!"

Two blondes are walking down the street when one of them looks down and finds a mirror.

She picks it up, looks into it, and says, "WOW! I know this person. I've seen this person somewhere before..."

The other blonde takes the mirror, looks into it, and says, "Duh, of course you have. That's me".
